Assembly of God Plans New Church

Ground breaking rites for a new Evangel Temple Assembly of God Church will highlight a special anniversary and rally day service to be held this Sunday, according to the pastors, Rev. Clyde Stockdale and Rev. Gene May.

The service will be held in the YMCA, 2080 Washington Ave., at 11 a.m., with the congregation moving to the new site at the corner of Sepulveda Blvd. and Cypress St. for the groundbreaking ceremonies.

The Rev. F. C. Woodworth, superintendent of the Southern California District Council of the Assemblies of God, will speak in the morning service and officiate at the groundbreaking.

Construction of the new colonial-style church will begin in a few days. Started two years ago by the present pastors, the church met for a time in the Grand Theater building, and more recently, in the YMCA, where they will meet until the new building is finished.

Materialism Denounced in Sunday Topic

That man must worship the one God only and not put his trust in material things is the keynote of the Lesson-Sermon on "Matter" to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday.

Take heed, and beware of covetousness for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth" is a Bible selection in the Lesson-Sermon from Luke's Gospel (12:15).

Passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy read: "Sensual treasures are laid up where moth and rust doth corrupt. Mortality is their doom." "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey as God. . . . The objects we pursue and the spirit we manifest reveal our standpoint and show what we are winning." (pp. 241, 239)

The Golden Text from I Corinthians (10:14) cautions, "My dearly beloved, flee from idolatry."

Registration For School Set Tonight

Registration for new students of the Temple Menorah Religious School will be held tonight from 8 to 10 p.m. at 112½ N. Catalina, Redondo Beach.

Classes will begin on Saturday, Oct. 1 and will be held at the Education wing, 119 Torrance Blvd., Redondo Beach from 9 to 11 a.m. Succinct assembly and celebration is being planned for that day. Students will not be registered on that day.

The new director, Norman Horowitz, has an extensive Jewish and secular educational background.

Those parents who cannot personally attend registration night are requested to contact Mrs. Yeskin at FA 8-4853.

Sermon Told By Rev. Cain

"Partakers of the Things of God" will be the topic of the Rev. George F. Cain at the 11 a.m. service at the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, Sunday.

In evening services at 7:30, he will discuss, "Resting on the Promises." Crib, nursery and toddler care is provided at all regular services.

Sunday School will be at 9:45 for all age groups, with junior and senior youth groups meeting at 6:30 p.m.

The Women's Missionary Fellowship will meet in circles on Tuesday at 7:30 p.m., according to Mrs. B. T. Lamb, president. The Millie Kreps Circle will meet with Mrs. Max Anderson, of 2229 Lyle Dr., while the Eileen Bowman Circle will gather at the home of Mrs. Charles Lockwood, 515 S. Irena, Redondo Beach. The Ruth Covell Circle will meet with Mrs. Oca Buzzard, 221 N. Irena, Redondo Beach.

Light in the Night

Despite the present darkness of fear in the world, there is a lamp whose light is bright with Love.

Indeed for many, this light is the long-promised Comforter, Christian Science.

By sincere study of the Christian Science textbook

Christian Science Lecture Set Tuesday

George Channing, C.S.B. of San Francisco, will discuss "Christian Science: Its Constructive Mission," in a radio lecture to be heard over Station KFWB next Tuesday evening at 8 p.m.

A member of the Christian Science Board of Lecturers, he will speak from the Village Theater for the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Claremont.

Rally of Workers for Tent Campaign Set This Sunday

A rally of workers, representing many of the cooperating churches in the forthcoming Harbor area evangelistic crusade, will be held this Sunday to plan an area-wide program of house to house visitation, Rev. Herbert W. Ezell, Wilmington pastor and general chairman of the crusade, announced.

The workers will meet at 2:30 Sunday afternoon in the Harbor City Foursquare Church, 1347 254th St., under the direction of Rev. Chester Cheesbro, Wilmington minister and chairman of the visitation committee for the meeting.

Object of the meeting is to indoctrinate workers for the task, assign territory, distribute materials and arrange visitation schedules.

The 22-day crusade, starting Sept. 25, will be conducted by evangelist Pete Riggs of Jacksonville, Ill., and is expected to attract large crowds from San Pedro, Wilmington, Torrance, Harbor City, Lomita, Redondo Beach and other communities.

Nazarenes Plan 'Back to School' Theme Sunday

"Back to Church and School" will be the theme of Sunday School classes at the Church of the Nazarene, 1501 W. Carson St., this Sunday at 9:45 a.m., as educators attend meetings as special guests.

Among those present will be Amanda Bonwell, principal, of Halldale School; Herbert Morrey, principal of Narbonne High School; and Bruce Deisenothe, business manager of Pasadena Nazarene College.

In the morning service, the Rev. Freeman A. Brunson will speak on the theme, "We Have An Anchor."

Starting Sept. 26, Rev. C. B. Cox, national evangelist will be at the church for one week. A full staff of workers will be on hand to help in the work, including Rev. Carlos Stepp, Rev. Kendrick, Rev. Arthur Fry, Rev. Donald Redmond, and Rev. Zaven Dohanian.
